

UNBAN REQUEST

Posted by TeamEkmek - 09 Jun 2011 20:21

I just got banned by M3ntoz for no reason (thats my opinion) only he thinks i'm the same person who get a ban before but this is not just giving me a permantly ban i think this is ridiculous only on a suspicion he has that im the same player because i have sort of same name and same picture but we are with some friends who have same names and same pictures but i'll change my name if this is a problem

i explain him that this was not but he say i have to get to forum for getting me unbannd

i hope this go's fast because i recently found TWK servers and always play them

i spend much time to get levels on warcraft

so please just unban me

gr.. Pacman

This afternoon i came online and sa player told me you were getting people leave the server by flaming and stuff like you did a couple of days ago when i was online. Normally a slay/kick/ban technique. I remember that first permanent ban cause there was a topic and your name pops out cause it's long. I searched for the ban in SB and i saw that account got VAC banned probably after we banned you from our server (link to other topic below). (You can say it's your friend but where's the proof?). I've never seen 2 team ekmecks on our server at same time.

In my opinion if you are 2 different people and you know your friend cheats, why do you even team up with him? I'll just wait what other admins say and will follow there conclusions as this is just my view on the case.

M3ntoz im always nice to people who nice to me but your right when you kick me or something for that reason ive got no problem with it his name is now TeAm_eK_mE_k_nL_TR - cCc he get also a ban recently (05-06-11 13:34) and looks like my name but isnt the same and he changes his name very often and you say i have to proof im not the player who gets banned on 01-27-11 thats hard to proof (is my word not good enough??)

but you give me immeditaly a perm ban without you have the proof that it is me thats not right i think maybe in this case "innocent until proven guilty" is at place i will change my name if nessessary tahts also a reason to believe me i think and hes my best friend and sometimes we play together but normally he dont cheat he says that was just 1 day he was trying a cheat program

sorry for my bad english mm i unbanned you. I though it was you, didnt notice there is a CCC team ekmek also.

Looks like you are the nice guy instead of that other one/2

I'm sorry, hf playing again.
