Grievance! Posted by Scathe - 07 Jul 2011 10:29
Hi Guys,
I couldnt find a section to post this so its going here!
It is with regret that I am having to write this, as I was not aware any member of twk was capable of actually causing upset to myself or my family, however
At 11am this morning I was in game on De_Dust with a few others, wicky, myself, dannydeath and a twk member ^5//FgZ//^3Noobgameon. As im sure you are all aware, bomb maps require cts to guard and prevent t's planting at bombsites. I was playing on the same team as ^5//FgZ//^3Noobgameon as terrorists, Dannydeath and wicky were both cts.
For those of you who do not know, DannyDeath is my step son and we often play on the twk servers together. I know that everyone can get frustrated in game when getting killed, I myself will admit to losing my cool on occasion.
What followed however I feel is inexcusable! ^5//FgZ//^3Noobgameon was rushing to a bombsite and DannyDeath managed to kill him. Now Dan was doing his job as a ct and defending the objective, plus we were only about 15-20 seconds into the round if that so I dont think he was camping in the 1st place. ^5//FgZ//^3Noobgameon in his rage spouted out over the mic "Oh my god DannyDeath you noob, you better stop camping you noob, or I will come and rape your mum"!!!!!
Now there are children that come and play on twk servers, and that sort of behaviour is disgusting even if you lose your temper. Of course hearing this I was absolutely furious, and I told him DannyDeath is my step son and you are refering to my wife and to watch his disgusting F'kin mouth.
While he has later apologised to myself about it With still being rather upset about the matter, this also upsetting my step son and still in shock of it actually taking place. I am writing here because I feel something should be said and done. Any individual, let alone a community/clan representing member in my eyes should never display this behaviour "anywhere" fullstop.

I appreciate your attention in this matter, and I will leave it in your capable hands.
