

TWK CS:S Servers

Posted by DreamState - 02 May 2012 19:11

It is with great sorrow that TWK is going to close it's CS:S servers temporarily.

I believe it will be a temporary thing. TWKgaming has always proven itself to be an incredible community. Since the moment of its inception it has survived through difficult times. We have amazing community members to thank for that.

I set up TWK in 2007, and the fact it continues today not only astonishes me, but is testament to the hard work of many of its members.

In the current climate of financial difficulties, I have to step down as a funder of TWK. This is something I regret, but something that must happen. I have a wonderful family to attend to that has recently +1'd 🙏

I wish to thank everyone who has ever done anything for our community and the CS:S servers. I have had some absolutely brilliant times with the TWK community, clan and admins. Some memories include the many matches we took part in, the 'kirby' competition, and the rofl laughing at the mini-games and zombie escape.

TWK will continue without abate - whilst we sort out the CS:S side, our Minecraft servers, with Tunes at the helm, continue to be incredibly popular. If you ever get chance to chat with Tunes, don't forget to thank him for the stuff he has provided, and continues to provide, TWK.

I read a magazine today that talked about Counter Strike: Global Offensive. Perhaps there lies our next venture!

I will always be checking the forums and will be around if required. But for now, my deep thanks to all that have been involved in TWKgaming.com.

Long may it prosper.

DS.

I wish you all the best with your life and your family, I hope sometime that TWK will be back up and running.

Thankyou to all of the people that made TWK what it is, especially DS, Tunes and Colin. I think that you guys did a great job and its a shame it had to come to a halt 😞 good luck with everything.
