Hiya,

One thing ive noticed more and more lately is that the Necklace of Immunity which you buy from shopmenu no longer grants immunity for a fair few races out there.

It does still work for some... It seems to have recently stopped working for the Crypt Lords ultimate Locast swarm.

There are also the races which can teleport you to their position and switch places with you (cant think of names off hand) which the necklace doesnt work for.

This has been brought up several times ingame recently.... so thought I would mention it here.

Cheers 😊

aye it does it with pipo the clown i think the problem has to do with the random ultimates i recon its coz of that, and idd for crypt lord it doesnt work, btw it isnt random at all it seems to happen on the same person the whole time

P.S, just offtopic Crypt lord should be team limited as it takes a chunk of health and apparantly you instantly get it from 2 persons if they play crypt lord

Hiya,

Another error to report for you...

The Ankh of reincarnation which is meant to give you back all your equip when you respawn next round after dying does not work.

Hi,

Would be nice to get this race working properly... FlameKnifeKing = Has a skill called Flame Power, which does not work.

Thanks

Hi Guys,

Dont know whether it is intentional or not, but thought i'd mention it anyways.

The warcraft server appears to have lost all races other than the standard default races, obviously if this was meant to happen no worries. If its an error though, thought you'd like to know 😊

Cheers

Don't know if its suppose to, but if u use for example Silver Surfer ulti, it has a 100 sec cd++ say u have used ur ulti in the end of one round, u get to use ur ulti immediatly the next round, even if it was like 60-70 seconds left in the cd.
