I don't think it is really a problem since it ain't really hurting anybody directly. If they were to flame using those words then it would be a ban but other than I think it is perfectly fine.

Cunt is bannable, same with KKK, fuck probably isn't, although if it bothers you feel free to ask them to change their name. I suppose I would get people to change name if they had the name fuck but I dno about clan tag xD any swear word dispalyed in either clan tag or name (i dont see the difference as its still visible and they can change/remove) will be kicked after a few warnings, and if still persistent banned for a while

oh the fun 🙄

thanks for the input guys

My screen name is "The CIA planned 9/11" and I haven't found anyone who has voiced a grievance. If anyone did a ban would be unjust because I'm voicing an opinion. So in conclusion it's just your opinion and nobody should be allowed to ban you because they would denying you you right to freedom of expression.

Our server 🤔
Your rules
Your choice if you want to break them 🔴

Also that isn't that bad although I would probably still ask you to change it because there could still be a chance that people will take offence to it.

to an extent williams 🤔
your name is fine but i dont think anyone with the opinion (example) "hitler is my hero and a god" should be allowed to play on the servers 🤔

I agree with Substick. Opinion or not, it is still offensive to people, and we want the community to be happy on the servers
