So, the compo is almost over... cant believe we're handing this one to Tollef to take home without even a decent fight...

Remember, it will last until the 1st Aug. 00:00, and for those who haven't noticed it...

ITS TOMORROW AT MIDNIGHT! 🤖

So lets go go go and take this one from Tollef (if you can handle it...)

I know the server has been empty, but if no one joins then it will be empty all the time, we need at least 4 TWK there to get the stats going, so invite your friends, your enemies, your cats and dogs, get them accounts, but lets do this 🤖
