

iNaZz Admin Request

Hey Guys its inazz here,

First off i would like to say how much twk is improving and how much i enjoy talking to all of you 😊

The main reason's why i would love the change to be admin would be:

Because so i could populate the twk servers with the best of my ability, and also to show discipline to the players on the servers, such as players being racist to one another etc...

I think you could trust me because im active well mannered and mature for my age ( hope so xD) and i could give alot back to twk so as . my kindness to all of you and to hopefully donate when i can get money available. and to show respect whilst im on the servers and that players dont leave and never come back. because i wanna populate the servers and make twk as bigger as it is at the moment...

ok guys i think i covered alot 😊

Take care love u all

Nice lad. One of the community members that actually bothers to make an effort with the rest of us, by coming on ts3 etc.

Although he did cotton on to the gay joke without gazza telling him. Which i find disturbing.

Gets the VapouR seal of approval ;D
