Can water element be blocked on this map? I have just been told that it is possible when under the map, to shoot past the walls. It does work as i have been killed by it.

I personally don't know if this is possible, but please do remind players that if they do this they are exploiting the map/bugs and are therefore breaking the rules of the server.

It is possible, but as you're underground, the aim is terrible and you're lucky to get one shot on someone. Not really an issue.

Doesn't happen very often, as the map doesnt come on much.

An exploit is an exploit, players shouldn't be abusing map glitches regardless of how beneficial they are to them.

Yeah i understand that, but that's one of the most underplayed races ever, and when they do it, an admin isn't on, and people usually votekick 🤔
So restricting or something is silly
