Yeah, it annoyed me a bit. I wouldn't mind if it just censored the individual words, but discarding your whole sentence and coming up with a stupid sentence in its place is frustrating, especially if you write a long sentence and it's all gone and have to type it again. Also, the filter is pretty sensitive and catches normal/slang/shortened words as swearing guess its pretty effective in letting u remember theres that swear filter ^^

If im not mistaken swearing isnt allowed, u wont get punished for a few emotional swear over the mic, but its still forbidden (coz we are friendly for families and stuff)

Yes I agree that swearing isn't necessary and not permitted or whatever, but sometimes it's a natural reaction and something frustrated you a bit and you slip in a swear word, and most of the time it's a long sentence, and forgetting there's a word filter, and it's completely gone (I read that back and it doesn't make complete sense, and too tired to edit it. 😊), but yeah that's my view. And also the fact it censors non-swear words can be annoying sometimes

EDIT: This seemed like I was raging a bit, but I'm not just for the record 🤔
