Well i'm happy with the races we have atm but more is always nice but that is something that depends on Pooky and the others cause there always busy enough and adding/fixing new races is something they need time for wich they mostly don't have. But they added some new ones recently. I'm sure more will come and who knows could be the ones you listed 🤔

But surely they should add the uber awesome race called Supa. I'm sure everyone wants to be that 🤖
