saw this brilliant thing on a zombie server, for the map change vote, instead of the first 3 being maps it was jst text saying " dont just randomly press like a noob, think about your map choice", thought this was genius and would be a great thing to add to the wcs ha ha ha! brilliant!

evryone ALWAYS just presses 1 just to get it over with quickly, and it often then goes to maps like deagle and anticamper, so they are WAY overplayed. i think this is a brilliant idea

Yea, Ive seen a few servers with this on, I thought I suggested it already, either that or I suggested it in my brain (My head wanders alot

Anyway, great suggestion

Hope it gets done.

Thanks

This is a great idea. Been on a few servers with this on. I can be a dirty little 1 presser, but if I press 1 and nothing happens, I tend to pay attention, it's effective. The only problem is you'll tend to eventually just get dirty little 4 pressers :/

I dont like it, cause thats exactly the way, how i get along with the maps that i like on this server. After joining the new map, you just have to be the first, who nominates a new map. I guess thats why we play my beloved anticamper, deagle etc anyway if im online.

Agreed Boblike

Also when the vote comes up people will be playing and will just quickly press 1 after taking a quick glance and if they can't do that the have to look and press another button which could get them killed and yes Anticamper is awesome.

ur nominate thing will still work, this will make people think about the map choice but im guessin they wont vary much from the top 3 on the list as usual, jst means they wont spam 1
