

Admin-ship

Posted by Coolio - 01 Dec 2010 20:32

Hey, Im Coolio,

In-game, I'm Hunter.

I've been a part of TWK since as long as I can remember,

And I love the community.

I play a lot on the Warcraft server (when Im not really busy).

And I would really like to be an admin on the Warcraft server, because I love helping the people there, and wouldn't mind bringing the justice every now and then 😊

I applied vefore, but there were too many admins at the time.

Right now, Im not seeing many around.

So please do consider me for a position,

I would do my very best to be a good admin 😊

Thanks, Hunter.

Personally I'd like to see you take part some more on the forums.

I know you quite well from when i used to play wcs and you are a nice enough guy who i dont think would abuse admin rights.

However, i did see a fair few periods of inactivity and also agree strongly with blackwaltz's comment.
