i dont know nox, but i do believe in people growing up. So childish behaviour that got someone banned could be gone. But then again that someone would have to be active for some time to earn the trust back

I think this is a conversation for the admin section

I know that what I did was childish and stupid, and I said i was sorry and didn't argue with the ban. I supported him because he asked me to, and he felt that he was banned unfairly, and I didn't know what he had done before I supported him. I'm only asking for a second chance because I know better and I'm not the guy that is on the servers to make enemies. I try to be active on the servers, I'm respectful and kind to every1, but as vapour said, its probably a conversation between the admins.
