I like playing on the server and I also play there allot on the wcs server. I really enjoy playing there since there are allot of nice people and that's not something you see on every server. I also see other nice people joining TWK and thought eej I want in 2 😊
) I follow the rules and I try to kick ass. I can help other players if needed learned my share in wcs now to be usefull. A few people know me a little bit by now to give their opinion about me. Also willing to help TWK with anything I can.
