Posted by crazyjack - 10 Aug 2011 14:22

i want to join twk, i have been on there warcraft servers more than the admins and other members have lately, haha. ive been playing css for many years now and come and go from playing. but at the moment iam loving it!! I only play on the twk warcraft server and i am begining to become a higher level, which is making me want to paly on the server even more!

Steam Name: jack_one1996

Steam ID: STEAM_0:1:17702666

Reason for joining: as i said just above, i can't get off the server because its so addicting and enjoyable. i have started to get to know a couple of members and admins on the server as well.

Servers where i play: TWK warcraft server ONLY ps: i also have a couple of maps which i have been wokring on, which i think would go grate on the warcraft server 🤔

Welcome mate, seen you on the server quite a lot, have fun, be active on the forums and most of all,

have some cake 🍰

P.S: you may want to create a "hello" thread with a bit of info on what you like, what you do and things, help the forum users to get to know you.
