

Being a member of the TWK Minecraft Server

Posted by Wheels518 - 17 Nov 2012 02:11

Hello I am Erik and am known on Minecraft as TheRussianPirate. I love to play video games and especially with others. I am respectful but tend to as maybe some people think a little too many questions haha. However, I learn fast and would love to be a member of the TWK Minecraft server and experience all the things the members get to experience. Mysteryblogga is a friend of mine on the server and she is a member. I hope to see everyone on and have a good time! Thank you very much.
