The MC server doesn't even notice, as I can get its map pretty fast and also generate it in some 16core machine pretty fast, problem is, it generates ~13Gb of images... and I have to upload them into the webserver, so it takes a bit...

Thanks mate, still not ready and my sig too, it had to be giant due to the detail on the world sphere, even with that size (and its made with out legal measurements) I had problems with a few details, but overall its mostly done.

And its a rectangle of 200x300 blocks 😊

I tried something to &quot;guest&quot; on the server on a webpage, but lagged to much to be usable.
