

Ye Olde Survivale Servere Historye... E...

HEY WHAT MEMORABLE THINGS HAPPENED IN THE SURVIVAL SERVER :DDDDDD

jk, jk.

Actually was thinking because of the epic battle that happened between me, voodoo and froggy today (well, yesterday now- happy midnight everyone) we should have a thread dedicated to important events that happen in the server.

The server history books, if you will.

First Entry now, I guess.

New Zornia

New Zornia is a small kingdom you will see if you look around when you first come into the server. It is a rapidly growing kingdom with rapidly growing power, being the most powerful kingdom at time of writing. The King of this land is Zorninphel, the first person to ever get a piece of wood on this land of Survivalia. His subjects include the loyal Sir Nez, who once ventured off deep into the unknown, risking his own life for his King, and the Squire Space, a loyal and trusted friend of the Kings. The kingdom is allied with King Gimp, of the GIMPS land. They are a relatively neutral kingdom, but will spring into action when action is needed, as shown in the Battle of Netherland, where land was taken from the Black Arm Gang.

More entries like this please! And sorry if I got any info wrong, I'm an idiot.
