

Max and creeper1555 perm banned

Posted by Tunes - 28 Feb 2012 02:09

For what matters, maxmmekker and creeper1555 are permanently and forever banned of our server, no rolling back.

This is just cause what they did to chifily's place, it's completely unacceptable.

So, this said, if anyone unbans them, I will perm ban who do it.

What I dont really understand is that there are MANY raiding servers where people get raided all the time and there arent anyone whining even tho there are like 200 players. But on TWK if you raid someone all the noobs starts to whine and there is something "wrong" with your mind oO

First by saying that there is something wrong with your mind i meant that you are a complete retard(Said it that way so i wont offend you too much) also if you dont like the TWK server dont play it, no one asks you to play it and clearly you aren't much welcome anymore as you had many chances to improve your attitude and you epicly failed.

Well Substick, most of the times you have to blow up the chests... And also if you loot someone they are most likely to move so it doesnt really matter if you blow up the whole place... Its just a waste of tnt for us...

Well all i say is that it is good to have you banned and now the whole server doesn't have to fight you and it can actually do other stuff.

Well PvP is a part of multiplayer survival, so if people want to mess around in their caves then why dont they play singleplayer?

Also froggy, you didnt really answer my question about what makes you think im a retard? xD
