

Max and creeper1555 perm banned

Posted by Tunes - 28 Feb 2012 02:09

For what matters, maxmmekker and creeper1555 are permanently and forever banned of our server, no rolling back.

This is just cause what they did to chifily's place, it's completely unacceptable.

So, this said, if anyone unbans them, I will perm ban who do it.

Well, this is gone a bit far.

Max and creeper, its not the pvp attitude, even if you are responsible for 21% of the total kills and creeper around 11%.

What really bothers me is simple, I might want a noob friendly server, where people can play, build something and have fun, well, I don't consider fun living with the fear of max, trolled,, creeper and a few others that I sent out for good and more to come maybe, being attacked daily is a real pain in the arse, mostly cause of this:

-I hate slavery games where you have to keep an eye on it, this includes, web fb like games, farmshit, ogame, stuff.

-Gaming is not slavery, it's fun

-You were turning my server into a fear server and not a fun server

-I've lost valuable players, even worse some from TWK community, due tot the loss of fun.

Some players, don't play minecraft for the pure abuse of the guy next door, play it for the fun of doing stuff together and don't really care for pvp, and those players I like to have on the server, PEACEFULL people

In fact, I might change all factions to peacefull and make it the default, on contrary to my previous idea about it.

So, max, creeper and next ones to come and read this thread, Get lost!

Go find another server where you have other players at your level.

I've gave enough chances, even after you completely grieved my creative with lava ladders, I thought a lot about it and even so I left you in again, cause at least you come here a talk about it.

But this time is defo. Out!

Btw, I have other methods to keep you out and the friends/brothers/other accounts that may login into the server, so don't make me use them cause it will cause a lot of other people getting booted.

Cheers.

I for one am one of those people that enjoys doing stuff with other people and building, which is why as soon as I became a mod, I took on the Minigame project with Voodoo, and even before I was a mod I made the lottery building for spawn (nudge nudge Tunes ;P) and I raged SO hard when the base me and steve built for 3 days was ruined the day after it was finished for no reason at all. It wasn't even to raid it, because no chests were destroyed. You just decided to TNT your way in and blow stuff up. Then, after Voodoo helped patch it up, you completely destroyed it with TNT and lava, and I was SO close to never coming back. And I know you'd say "well go and find another server" and my plain and simple answer will be no! I am part of the TWK community, and I want to play with the TWK members!

About the peaceful factions by default idea, I like the sound of it!

Btw tunes an ip ban wont work, there are programs that can change your ip. And I am trying to find another server its just hard to find a server that I like as much as I liked TWK. And tunes, did I make someone quit the server? oO Cus froggy told me that only creeper had made someone leave the server... And if you wanted your server to be a fun server, then why did you call it a hardcore survival? If you want it to be a fun server with no pvp at all then you should atleast make your players aware that there is no pvp 🤔

First, you have the ip your isp want's you to, you don't change it. And I don't ban an ip, if you don't know, internet networking on all 7 layers is exactly my field and mix that with heavy Linux knowledge.

You have the answer above for your question aboutleaving the server, and yes, some people including TWK old folks left the server not only because of you but several others too.

I didnt know about all that internet shit 🤔

Maybe you should have told me that I made some TWK people leave the server? Because then I would actually have taken your request for me to grief less a little more serious >.< I wasnt aware that I made anyone leave the server and that the whole griefing thing was that serious 🤔

I know for a fact that I've said you've caused people to leave, and I doubt Froggy said that you caused no-one to leave. And Johannicus, it's not over nothing
