To: any TWK admin

Crusher574 here, I was just invited to your amazing server by my friend named -MysticSnoopy and so far it has been the best faction server Ive been on, possibly even the best server over all. Ive been on other faction servers but all of them arent very good. this is because there isnt people sneaking up behind you and going to kill you every two minutes. So anyway I want to be registered so I can experience this server to the fullest. Thank you for your patience.
