

TrolledYeah's Ban

Posted by TrolledYeah - 05 Jan 2013 17:42

If anyone is reading this(preferably a mod or admin) I would like to know why I was banned, whenever I log in it states 'disconnected from server - griefing' I saw wicked's post but he makes it sounds like I totally demolished his base. I have to disagree with his statement because I did not break the obsidian recently, I did it during the original raid with Maxmekker10. The glass I broke did no real harm to the "castle" yet wicked acts like I blew everything he built up.

Please reconsider the ban, or at least tell me the actual rules to the griefing and raiding.

I took the glass because me and max needed it for potions, there is some sand around our island but its underwater, therefore making it more difficult to get, I could of gone to a desert out of spawn but I didn't want to risk dieing from PvP.
