Heys Gimp, WB (again) 🍻

Lots of problems to sort either with the site and the mc server, little time atm, and also going into vacations 🍻

Hope to see you all soon!

ATM I have no idea if you were banned, the server is down since Saturday for maintenance, almost over with a few changes... hopefully for the best. 😊

Been playing on iMattR's while twk's been down. sucks cuz he has an mcmmmo bug that keeps resetting my levels.

Guess I'll go single player until it's back.

hmm you dont remember chif baning you for xraying?

Chifilly : It wasn't your break percentage that did it Space, it was your X-Ray tunnels

Don't start with some bulls--t that you don't know why you've got banned. You were banned for X-Raying, there was A-LOT of evidence that you're account had been X-Raying including break percentages and alot of X-Rayed tunnels.

You may claim that your friend was using your account but as we say to everybody, You're responsible your account and your accounts security, therefore I do not care who was on your account. Your account has been X-Raying and that is a fact, During the time in which you got banned your forum account also was posting on the forums. That to me justifies that you still had access to both of your accounts and makes out that this story in which you weren't on your account is just that... A story.

Also.. your little &quot;Bitchy&quot; remarks don't help your case either.

Space_Cowboy : Thanks for the ban guys 😊
I didn't actually xray for diamonds... i was testing a duplication glitch which i guess counted towards my diamond mining percentage. Anyways I disposed off all the diamonds in a little lava hole by my house... Well bye bye hope the server does well in the future...
