Tom, I know that people in the game give you a hard time and I do tell them to shut up.. BUT you do rage an awful lot at things that are mostly your fault..

I think that you can be a nice guy at times but for example earlier, you were spamming your ass off and nagging the moderators, That kind of behaviour gets you NOWHERE which is why I ignored you when you were raging.. I did warn you, Max and creeper to shut up, after that it stopped for a while.

Then you entered the war zone again, got killed and began raging.. you were nagging for your stuff back, but as a moderator I WILL NOT do anything to get your stuff back, the war zone is a WAR ZONE for a reason. FOR WARS, okay? unless you want to get in a fight, unless you want to possibly loose your stuff.. DONT GO IN.

Simple, as for carbrini I shall be talking to him, any more of it.. get another screenshot and there will be serious punishments.

--VooDoo--

EDIT Also, these screenshots give us proof you use a hacked client which is indeed punishable.. so, kinda silly to post them huh?

Yeap, voodoo has taken all that I can say but I can enforce, our server is based on that, you can do whatever you want, but you must take notice, there are stronger and more addicted players there, so raging with them will get you pwned like a noob.

War zone is really it, you enter and you better know what you were doing and no stuff back, in fact, there are very slim reasons for me or anyone else to provide any player some stuff lost in some stupidity.

Nuff said, move along, change your attitude.

I really feel like I want to ban that creeper and nox guys 😏
Unfortunately I don't have admin on the server
Jk just think by being a dick and spamming etc is bannable 😏
