

Here's a bit of irony

Seeing as I'm a huge fan of irony, I decided to build something in relation to it! And it worked out quite well because I was listening to the song "Down" by blink-182 chilling in the End with Postal. One of the lyric lines of the song is "This can't be the end..." and so I thought I'd write it, in Obsidian... (here's the ironic bit!) in the End. Enjoy!

EDIT!

Voodoo decided he'd build one in the Nether as well - I don't think it's as ironic as mine is, but I still love it nonetheless!

Completely Un-related

Just remembered this nice little snippet of irony that I quite like:

"A Ford Focus driver has ADD."

Let me know if you get it. 🤔

Dw froggy - it was a bit of a tasteless dig at people with special educational needs ...

Froggy: Think of the irony between the word "focus" and "ADD" 😊

Amitiel: I can assure you, it wasn't a tasteless dig. And I'm sure people with ADD won't mind, as I have it myself 😊
You may be thinking of ADHD, which is essentially the same but worse.

Trust me - I know about sen BIG time! ADD, ADHD, ODD, Aspergers - 18 years professional (and personal) experience 😊

For me it just felt odd as a comment, a little out of place, thats all 😊

Ah, fair do's! Well, I meant no offence by it 😊
I just think it's a rather funny little phrase, considering how ironic it is.

and eventually the ender dragons will eat away at the letters, making them dissapear which will eventually make the end of the end ended 🤪

(get it? haha i know. i'm so funny)

Well, the Obsidian letters were later replaced with Bedrock, so the letters will live on 🤪
