

What I spend my wage on...

Posted by iMattR - 24 Jul 2013 20:11

So, as most of you know, I like money! Lot's of money. Money, money, money. And fortunately enough, I'm employed - so I have it! Sort of... anyway, I think this month's idiotic buy was the 12 centimetre tall figure of my Minecraft skin.

The reason I've had it printed is because it's the skin that I've stuck for the longest, and I've always been into Greek mythology and whatnot; so being Zeus seemed rather appropriate.

Anyway, here's a [rather bad quality] picture: grab.by/oLkE
