Good Day! My Name Is Hackzilla!

Posted by Zorninphel - 28 Jul 2011 22:08

C'mon guys, give him one last chance. I think he's learned his lesson.

Posted by Gimp - 28 Jul 2011 22:13

again, not the way to request an unban and this is two topics for the same thing. nowhere near what i had in mind when i suggested posting on the forums space and zorn.

+1 to keep him banned.

Immature, over the top and "spam-like" posts arn't needed to request an un-ban.

Maybe we should unban him 🙄

Hes probs just a kid who hasn't fully (if at all) matured yet but I think he means his apology and at least it is one more person on the server 🙄

Just tell him if he does another topic he will not be unbanned 🙄

All boils down to this.

First Hackzilla, you DON'T spam the forums with unban me, the possibility of getting you unbanned goes few million years away per thread.

Doing it in the wrong sections, guess what?

Next time, you come to the right place and ask politely, yes, I'm an effin peacock with manners, I've been banned to, several times, and there ways to get it undone, you got both ways wrong.

If you really want to get un-banned, ask again in a week. Thanks
