

No Defined Regions

Posted by Trador354 - 21 Sep 2011 19:28

Hai guys!

ive been playing minecraft today and for some reason when i try to open up the factions chests it says "no defined regions here", any idea how can i fix that?

Thanks in advance!

Will take a look into it, atm no one else complains about, but will take a look.

Thanks for reporting!

Tunes, I would also like to report the fact that i'm rubbish at Minecraft. I think you need to do something about that because it causes a lot of frustration. Just thought you should know 😊

I asked twilight who do they blame.

They said the blame raywilliamjohnson.

BTW mate, do you remember what did you had in your hand? There some tools bidings that may cause this, did the chest opened?

Kudos

String is the tool to check worldguard regions (name, owner'n'stuff) 🤖
No worries, will check perms so it won't happen.
