Well, i think you'll be happy to be notified that it was only a 24 hour ban... I banned you for the racism.. i quote that you said "Hail Hitler" and then after i asked you to change your skin from a German soldier you began to be disrespectful towards a Moderator which will not be tolerated.

You will be un-banned once the 24 hours is over, once the 24 hours is over you are free too play again, if any racism or disrespect to admins/other players after this point occurs then you will not be warned before punishment.

Thankyou.

I'm surprised he isn't perm'd tbh 🙄
but since he did apologise then perhaps he shouldn't be banned 🙄 well, lets put it this way, I didn't see but other mods did, I believe people know pretty well when its an iron cross or a swastika, and if it is, its a perm. Period, adding heil hitler is not really good to it.

Sooo, if he does come with a different skin, let him be, if he doesn't. Perm.
