

Protest a ban

Posted by AfriendlyPaedo - 21 Feb 2012 19:27

Hello im just saying that i shouldnt really be banned as Max has grieved my base a second time without a reason and i raged using irl threats. Whereas before i had no idea what irl was or if it was illegal to irl threat people. I dont really mind as it is a 2 or 3 day ban but i would like it if someone could understand me 🙄

To be perfectly honest, I have always said I think Max should be banned, I'm in a lenient mood so I don't want people banned but perhaps Tunes should talk to Max about this because if it was me, I would have probably left the server by now. If that doesn't happen then perhaps you should give them a few materials for it.

Edit: From what I've heard you came on ts and started saying stuff about it to me as well, sorry I was afk. But please, could you just poke me next time and tell me you want to talk to me 🙄

Just do yourself a favor too, please do behave while on the server, as you might have an idea, I can know mostly everything on the server, just a warning.

I don't go with forever bans, but sometimes a few days off to cool down is mandatory.
