

desert lag

Not sure if it is just me but there is some kind of insane lag when i go near the desert next to spawn. If its not just me, maybe someone has made a sand machine or something that lags the heck out of the chunk.

edit- just got powerfire to check it out, she also got insane lag so i suspect someone has done something to lag the hell out of that chunk. Tunes can you see if you can get near it, ty.

Also, can someone message me on Steam when they're on the Minecraft server that can unjail me, since I accidentally jailed myself and can't unjail, and been stuck there for about a week now

(Not played minecraft) But how can you jail yourself and be stuck? 🤔
Sounds funny

Lol, well, Froggy unjailed me earlier, which means if you toggle jailed me, I'd be jailed again... :S lol

And Nemx, if you're jailed, you have no access to any commands at all, hence the inability to unjail xD
