If you had a perm ban, then you are perm banned.

If the ban was temp, then it would have been lifted.

If the ban was a genuine mistake, why did you wait 5 months (as you claim) before questioning it? After all, you say you say you 'really like the server' yet havent tried to log on for 5 months ...

If the ban was justified then I do not believe for one minute that you don't know why you were banned in the first place - sounds like a case of 'you made your bed, now lie in it' tbh something about your story just doesnt ring true ...

Well, checked the logs, and you were banned by gimp, sooo, I'll have to wait until he comes into the thread.

And thanks Naomi! You're AWESOME 🍷

Spiker, can I ask you a genuine question. Have you ever heard of punctuation, grammar, spelling, or sentence structure before? Any of those words ring a bell at all?
