

Unban Etc etc

Posted by NeoCopyman - 10 Sep 2012 01:41

User name on minecraft: NeoCopyman

Reason for getting banned: Apparently it was illegal for me to blow up areas in the nether to try and get to a chest.

Tell us what happened: Me and an Unnamed user were screwing around in the nether and we found Wolves nether spawner base thing. I blew some shit up with a bed in an effort to gain access and realized the area with the chest was claimed. Mined around the entire area, till I came to their spawner which was unclaimed. Broke that shit, got stuck in the process, Nuked an unclaimed area, still didn't work, Enderpearl'd my way out and judged the distance to the chest and TNT'd the area somemore. At that point I had to do something IRL so I left the task of getting to the chest up to the Unnamed player. I logged back in the next day and one of the players from Wolves faction expressed his hatred for me for wrecking that base. He said that I was getting a temp ban for destroying his claimed area when the wooden chest was in an Unclaimed area. That, is complete bullshit, since i dug around the claimed area and the chest was in said area.

Why should we unban you: I got temp banned for 2 weeks (Rather harsh) because he claimed that I grieved his base for the hell of it when the chest was in a unclaimed area. As I explained above, The chest was in a claimed area, and that accusation, that I probably should've screen shot, is crap.

I am a nice guy. I just tend to be an asshole when I get banned for what I believe is bullshit.

Anyways. The Abuse thing is a bit of a stretch, Considering I never insulted you directly, called any of you vulgarities and so on so forth.

{Really Sorry here Chifilly, Its habit 🙄

Considering your level of disrespect, I'm pretty sure we can class that as abuse. Or hell, we'll even make up a new rule. But either way, this isn't the place nor the time to discuss it - I'll talk to Voodoo and Chifilly and see what we come up with.

Heh, I've i've done is argue my stance. Among other things. But still, I guess people in the UK can't take shit without getting all Offended.

Anyways, This has gotten less funny over time, now its become more a chore to continue arguing. I'll keep monitoring the forums for the hell of it though. Name the rule after me 🍌

I wouldn't really call what you're doing "arguing your stance", all your doing is complaining and insulting people, directly or indirectly, it's still insulting. You were banned for a legitimate reason, and it was only a temporary ban, and you come on here whining like a little kid, and then you have the nerve to say we're the ones with the problem? Pathetic.

And from your last comment "I guess people in the UK can't take shit without getting all offended" is also an insult to an entire nation, so you're more of an arse than I thought. Good riddance is all I can say to be honest!

Actually People in the Uk can take shit, least the ones that I know, Its just this small group of Admins can't seem to. Must be something to do with tiny servers. And really? Why haven't you banned me yet? Are you all just going to persist with trying to argue with someone as stubborn as me?

I mean,(Pretty hypocritical of me but) Arguing on the internet is like running in the Special Olympics, Even if you win you're still retarded.

Well, I'm hardly going to waste the money to fly to Texas to prove an arrogant douchebag wrong. Now stop wasting everyone's time.

I'm not wasting anyone's time, You are just choosing to waste it by bothering to argue with me.

Okay, I've tried to keep quiet and leave you to deal with it amongst yourselves but this is becoming ridiculous, Neo, You are acting ridiculously childish and extremely disrespectful, there is no need for you to be on this forum any longer, If I had the ability to ban you from the forums you'd be gone already,

First, You come and disrespect the Staff team with your pathetic comments, then you attempt to blame us for your stupidity and mishaps.

Secondly, You disrespect the whole of England in one racist babbling line of bullshit which not only is against the rules but is very irritating (And then you complain and wonder why you are banned?).

Thirdly, You disrespect people with disabilities over the internet, I guess that's just you trying to act like a big man when in reality you are just a pathetic useless kid, now then, if you'd kindly leave.

(Also, sorry for commenting late but I've not been on the forums in a few days and haven't been able to reply until now)

Obviously all of you need to grow thicker skin. Sigh, I knew some idiot would rage over the analogy. It really shows how superficial most of you are, to ignore the argument and let it descend into anarchy.

Okay, it's not the fact it's offended us personally, it's just your pathetic attitude and insults (and insults to a lot of people) that won't be tolerated. We're not like "oh, we don't want this guy here because he made me all upset, boohoo", it's the fact that "this guy's a dick, and we don't want someone like this as part of our community";
