

Banned?

Well, I was in the middle of placing a redstone lamp when I was suddenly banned. I tried to log back in, and it said one thing: "x-ray". First of all, what about placing a redstone lamp makes you think I was x-raying. Second of all, looking at my inventory you could see the following: A diamond sword, a diamond pickaxe, a diamond shovel, a diamond hoe, two enchantment tables, one diamond and NO armor. If I was xraying don't you think I would have more than that? Anyway, third of all, I've been banned once for x-raying, and I did do it. The ban became a one-week ban, and I was told that if I x-rayed again, I would be banned. Do you really think I am that stupid?

Hopefully you will believe me,
