

I got kicked out of my faction due to a bug

Posted by PixelHurricane - 04 Apr 2013 15:38

I was part of a faction of three with my two friends yesterday and for some reason when I logged on today I wasn't a part of it anymore. I know that they wouldn't kick me out without a reason.

also I got curious and wondered if i was having a problem being in factions at all so I made a temporary faction (not a good idea) and lost 1000 dollars.

i'm wondering if someone could explain why i'm suddenly out of the faction, and maybe reset my account completely?

Now that's a new one... maybe they have really kicked you out and are trolling you, you know, we've had around 2000 factions and never anyone reported such a problem.

Just do me a favor, what was you faction and ign so I can dig the logs a bit and come back here with something.

Cheers

Yeah, whoever made factions is a complete nonce or the overlooked a massive thing that's been a problem for a long time. There is no way to get rid of announcements which is SUPER annoying, since it spams chat even more than it normally does when you enter faction land

My friend and I have had this problem also. We were both kicked from the faction called WarTurtle. We were the only members in it so it wasn't other members trying to troll us.

Then you were inactive for too long. If you're inactive for more than, I believe, 7 days you will get kicked from the faction. If not, then no idea Question.

I was inactive for over a week.

Ofc, I get kicked from faction, So I came back got back etc

And then I noticed that my 540 or so power was all drained down to 8 or 10.

Any clue why this happened?

Power gets lost over time (being offline) in default config (not exactly sure about TWK) and you will lose access to your faction due to inactivity (I think its like a week by default). Not sure if you can lose all your power due to inactivity though...
