

TWK-R for DragonThingy

Posted by DragonThingy2 - 22 Nov 2012 17:37

Hello! Since I finally was able to make an account after two of my emails failed, I shall make a post about myself.

My IGN is DragonThingy, and I only play games on my PC (my stepdad hogs the Xbox -.-). Once I get enough money, I plan on getting Skyrim and renewing some of my music programs. Speaking of which, I'm a childhood musician. I compose, perform, and listen to a crapton of different styles of music. The instruments that I currently play are clarinet, bass clarinet, piano, and guitar. Although I don't get tutoring outside of school, I do attend Blue Lake Fine Arts Camp every summer in Michigan to improve my playing. So far, since I started performing 2 years ago, I've already gotten to play with a tri-county honor band, two high school marching bands, and will get to perform with the middle school sector of All-State band. Basically, that band consists of the top middle school aged band geeks across the state. ^J

I'm a relatively experienced Minecraft, despite the fact that I got premium only on June 9th, 2012. Being an honor student, I usually finish my homework in about 5-10 minutes, so I'll be pretty active on the server (unless I have an upcoming performance or family party). I do have , and if you ask me in-game, I might give it to you if I deem you worthy (owahahahah).

If any of you need help with anything, whether it be music related, school related, or Minecraft related, I'd be glad to help. Also, I'm learning to speak German. Auf Wiedersehen!

Awesome app! Glad to have you here!

Also, you should get TeamSpeak and join us on the TWK TeamSpeak server (if you haven't already).
Server address: ts.twkgaming.com
