dude this is just another thing on top of the many things you have done to prove the negatives in your personallity - And really, i would be happier if he didn't talk you to - why should he waste his time?

Youv'e proven and you are a liar and power mad - enough said.

Mate I accept I was power mad and I don't expect people to let me have any power!

All u want is one more chance to prove that you've all got the wrong impression of me! I made aoo Many friends on wcs but I was an idiot I abuse my power and I was mean to a select few that were mic spamming! I respected every admin, I liked every player but I did lose my temper to a few players I'd never met before that were being irritating.

I just want one more chance to prove you I am a nice decent guy! I swear to you I won't be disrespect to anyone!!!
