Only started playing CS:S again about 3 days ago. The WCS server was one of the first ones my eye came across. Joined it and now I'm playing it all day. I have noticed that some of the rly high leveled players are going on and being mean to the newbys (like me). Guess that's it, hai TWK.

Just to halt confusion, the people I mean are Bongsiff and Nehsa.

Bongsiff is a nice guy if you get to know him a bit better, he can be quite up-front a lot of the time but as I said he's a good guy and for Nesha, I totally agree, he is a complete tosser, he recently was banned for one reason or another, although I don't know the reasons 100%, he was suspected of hacking by a lot of players, he also isn't much of a nice person to talk to, but some people like him.. he got unbanned a day or 2 after the ban..

Anyhow, nice to meet you, enjoy your stay XD, have fun
