Hi!

Just registered now, still looking around, but from what i saw, Grats for the nice site and forum.

I'm playing WoW since 2005 in Moonglade (Alliance), but now with WotLK, I started a new guild (Bloodshed Clan) with some friends at Thunderhorn (Horde) and what can I say, FTH

About Steam... I have Orange Box for PS3, loved Portal (who didn't. lol). I'm thinking to start playing CSS, but for those of you who plays WoW, knows its very difficult to have time to play WoW and other game 😊 but lets see.

Have Fun!
