

Hi

Hello all.

Been playing on your servers lately. Mostly because of Vandricko who is my best friend, and my computer that for some reason can't play L4D or TF2 anymore without lagging every 2nd minute (it does in CS:S too sometimes). You have probably seen me as Paladin Alt-Ctrl. Alt-Ctrl is the nick really, but I used Paladin for some rounds a while back and for some reason it got stuck.

I've really enjoyed your servers, always someone saying something funny 😊
Seems like a nice bunch of people.

Sadly I haven't got a good and stable internet connection at the moment, so I can only play when I'm at vandricko or at the school.

Thats it I guess, won't bore you anymore. Just thought I'd say elo 😊
