im pretty much agreeing with whats being said to bring back a proper soruce server, its a classic server so that means none of these extras imo. all you need is sourcemod (for admin shizle) and a maplist i remember back in the day when we 1st got our servers everyone was in agreement on thoes lines purly because it kept the gameplay smooth and as its classic source thats all you realy need..

as for vip mod as much as i love it there is not much point adding it if we cant get a stable backing on the server itself so maybe leave it for a later date when we have the following, or perchance only have it on by admin request when people are on?

but fyi to this from mentoz (and yes i cant quote for naff 🙄 its been done in the past and its always been a strong thing they go extremly well together.

"It's a classic source server OR a VIP server, mixing things up like that ain't gonna work."

other than that my only gripe is the swear filter needs some work on it because it is getting irritating when the simplest of things are getting flagged, im all for keeping it clean but we only need the basics covered not every thing on every language you can think of 😊 one example is a sentence with "put a" in it gets flagged *facepalm*

my 3 cookies

- 1) wipe it back to stock
- 2) add admin mod and update map list
- 3) if donator skins are that much a gripe add one per side max
- 4) agree more and more with whats already been said 😊
