

What the hell is the point?

Posted by Hunter - 29 Oct 2011 00:58

I go away for a few days, and don't play on the TWK minecraft server, and I come back, and my Faction is ruined.

Maxmekker10 and creeper1555 admitted to doing it. Can't anything be done?

Its just stupid that this can happen. So I'm prolly not gonna play there anymore -.-

Also, Im on atm.

And I quote creeper1555:

"what faction do we want to greif now?" (to Maxmekker10)

As those people don't come on the forum often, all the people that want revenge should plan something together and launch an all-out, no-hold back strike on them...

I'm sure everyone would enjoy a bit of Creeper-bashing right? and I'm sure we can gather some TNT, and I'm sure we can find their base?

Well, anyone up for some enjoyment 🤪

Well, it belongs to game mechanics, there are ways to make the bases safe. Can't do anything as griefing is allowed in the survival map.
