

Starting out at TWK MC

Posted by sh4z - 07 Nov 2012 00:24

Hi Everyone!

A bit about me for those who are interested:

I've been playing MC for a while now (Couple Years)
) new to factions but learning fast!

Thanks for the warm welcome on the Server! Met some nice people and Mods seem like they know whats going on which is good! still exploring heaps, this world is huge!

Looking forward to playing some more MC tonight, TWK seems like a fun place to play! lots of people and never boring. A couple people need attitude re-adjustment but I'm sure that will come in time

Cheers! 🍺

Haha, nice to see a guy come to the forum and stay, and not just apply for rights and leave 😊

Welcome to the community, and have fun! 😊
