Wondering if I was ever gonna get unbanned since I really didn't do anything except for the cursing and me and Voodoo talked that through and I apologized 😊
I really like this server lol. I try to log on like ever other day hoping i'm unbanned.

Hmm, you were banned because you could see my name through the walls of your base (a black written name) on an obsidian (dark purple/black) background.. not only would that be very difficult (Without a hacked client) it would also not be possible from that distance, I was about 117 blocks away.. the name STOPS drawing at about 40 or 50 blocks away, so we believed that it must have been a hacked client.

Although we were not 100% sure about this and we believed we needed an explanation on how that was possible we decided that we needed to stop your access to the server for the time being.

I took optfine off and I could only see names from like 30 blocks or w.e. away and I could barely read them. And this is kinda dumb if I wasn't dedicated to server I wouldn't still be trying to get unbanned.

Again, use the damn edit button!

Secondly, you have been banned for 6 days, and you will be unbanned when we feel the time is right (possibly about a week)

Did you already disband my faction and have everyone raid it? lol.

No, because that would be abusing powers
