I will not unban you. Renadragon followed you, and saw you dig straight down to where some diamonds were, I then joined, followed you further, and you dug to another diamond vein after deciding not to dig to a different diamond vein

Well I will make your ban a week ban because you were good, accepted the punishment and apologised. However, if you're caught again it will be permanent

Well, you're a bit safe, your percentages are not that high.. do that again, and you'll get a perm global ban.
