

HUGE Raid by Maxmekker10 today.

He utilized TNT to gain entry, and proceeded to slaughter an entire faction.

It was quite the sight.

I build this outside of the target faction's base.

soooo looks like.. he changed nuttin and he will be banned for life... Getting tired of this really tired.

This was precisely why I banned him for 9 months, him and creeper were here just for the fun of raiding everyone.

I can't stand anymore of this.

Sorry, he must go.

Isn't raiding part of factions pvp?

Nothing he did was against the rules.

All be it, very aggressive. He didn't do anything wrong.

ok, I've unbanned him, but keep in mind, he won't be satisfied until he finds and destroys everyone's base.

Sooo making everyone leave again, as it happened before like...2 or 3 times and having the server empty for weeks.

wowow Tunes.. I think you need to update your rules.. Or at least tell me what im allowed to do and what im not.. Cus I raided them, which I am allowed to according to the rules.

So am I allowed to raid or not? And im starting to think that you just want me banned, so youre looking for reasons all the time.

&quot;This is just cause what they did to chifilly's place, it's completely unacceptable.&quot; Thats why you banned me.. And that Chifilly thing wasnt a raid, it was a grief.

And it also seems like you look at me like im a beast/mass murderer/terrorist, which is quite funneh :3
