Posted by BadInfant - 07 Feb 2013 18:07

Hi TWK, I was just wondering why I was banned for x raying and I haven't x rayed at all so I thought someone must of been on my account because I have no mods on this computer.

Well I was with you and dot4444 vanished and it was near an area Tunes had claimed, and he had some chests underground. I caught you dig straight down to these chests when there was no way of knowing they were there, thus the ban.

No, it was near where you had claimed. Co-ordinates -2739, 77, -321 (so glad I have a whiteboard to write these down xD). If it's still left as it was after I banned him, where he dug down is covered by a piece of dirt. It sticks out like a sore thumb since the area's sand xD

You need to take responsibility for your own account. The account will stay banned

Do you have any idea how many times the "it was my brother" excuse passed around this forums?!
