I'm sure this has been said multiple times on the server and on the forum;

&quot;We need more information!&quot;;

Was it at your home, faction home, if not we need co-ordinates etc.

Just saying something happend won't get you anywhere

You got pvp killed, which by the way, it's perfectly legal here.

When a a faction has no admin, any faction member can get admin with /f admin nick (replace nick with you nick) 🤔
