Funnily enough, it wasn't me. I don't have a C64 (But if I did, I would do!).

I'm responsible for some of the Linux, Solaris and possibly the 'Unknown Unix' numbers though.

There's some screenshots of Contiki (The C64 OS) here: www.teleferique.org/projects/fan/wikini/...peratingSystem" and also a web server running on a C64 serving up pages to the web! www.c64web.com/"

/steals it thru p2p

lol

I download something from Napster

And the same guy I downloaded it from starts downloading it from me when I'm done

I message him and say "What are you doing? I just got that from you"

"getting my song back fucker"
