

Ded3 is post Whoring

Posted by VooDoo - 24 Apr 2011 23:43

Every single thread I click on I see at least 2 comments from Ded3 and most of them are completely useless and is a post, and then the next one is him adding to his pointless post, so I think he is just post spamming to get his post count up, and a few people have told me that its kinda irritating them, not going to mention names..

just wanted to let people know..

Thanks

as long as its on topic, or a reaction (lol, sucked, nice, etc) there is no problem.

Also getting post count up accomplishes this:

I think he's just a young guy who trying abit too hard to make friends,

If need be, we'll just link him to some rules and ask him to stick to them in a non-firm and polite way.

He's not badly breaking the rules but he does need to stick to them a bit better.

No, by post whoring I mean he posts one post, then he creates another post directly after his first post just simply to say "lol", anyway, as I said last night, I was just in a bitchy mood, so decided to bitch on someone, sorry about that..

Sorry if I offended you Ded3 and Colin, THAT SONG, HAHAAHAHAHAHA, couldnt stop laughing, the guy at 0:25 reminds me of Neil from the inbetweeners.

Thanks

That's not what we are saying here Ded3. Everyone is allowed to post here, even you. Just try to pay attention to what most said. Perfect example is your orange posts. I'm sure you can see that to. Also if you missed something in your previous post don't post a new one on your one few sec after, just press the EDIT button and add it.

Also what I think is weird that you post sometimes so much in the chatbox what should be on forum and sometimes the otherway around.

Again don't stop posting just try to keep some things in mind, cheers mate.

Duude, we show love on these forums not hate. If someone wants to make 1000 posts in one day, let them. It makes our forums more popular 😊
